Indecent exposure on the super bowl. During the halftime show there were several provocative and inappropriate outfits and dance moves. In addition, during Usher's performance with his girlfriend, he repeatedly touched her inappropriately, obviously stared at her butt, and multiple provocative themes were portrayed. This is not suitable to show on such a public channel! Kids could be watching, and these themes can negatively influence them and introduce them to wrong themes early on.

I was appalled watching with my 5 nieces and nephews (age 4yrs-11yrs) of the halftime performance. Not only did you have female “dancers” twirling on silver poles, but you had the main artist rip his shirt off and expose the chest. For a nationally broadcasted show the amount of nudity; whether male, female, them, they, should not happen. Please help me to explain to my 10 year old niece why it’s not ok to walk around shirtless when her defense is “well the guy on tv did it and no one got mad”.

Ticket: # 6773600 - Comcast lack of service since before Labor Day

City/State/Zip: Dover, Delaware 19901

Company Complaining About: Comcast

Description

Please note that this is not the first time that I have reached out - with Comcast thumbing their nose at the FCC.

This last round issues began well before Labor Day with the promise of a repair man coming out on Labor Day. I told the tech I had a house full of company coming and he said "Do Not Worry - The Tech Will Be Able to Understand the Problem by Reading This Statement".

Labor Day was the next day and the Tech called me- I explained that I was terribly busy with company - and that I had been told that the other Tech had said if he read the detailed notes I gave and were on the ticket - there should be no problem. When he got here I would assist the best I could.

His words were "Screw this! I ain't coming out unless I know what the problem is!" And then hung up!

WE have called scheduled for Techs to come out only for them not to show. No phone call. No note on the door.

We did win the lottery about a month ago and a tech came out and he said he had been meaning to come out to this area because a piece of equipment in his truck was signaling a problem with the areas in the area. He moved some wires and our tv continued to do the same thing -Freeze up for upwards of 5 minutes

We were having friends in for the Super Bowl - so I called for a Tech to come out so that we could finally get the tv to quit freezing which could have been a real problem if it happened during the game.

The Tech said there is a bad wire that runs under the road that is bad and needs to be replaced - but it would take time. He went to the basement and claims he changed an amp and everything should work for now

It did not last 24 hours. 2 hours before the Super Bowl our tv went black! I called had to deal with their Robo Unit which wasted about 40 minutes. Then I finally got to talk to a Tech. The things I had to do were ridiculous. We could not pair the tv to the remote - the wires were not where they needed to be - We had not touched anything

We finally put a bandaid on the problem - and I do mean a bandaid - because this morning when I turned on the tv I faced the same nightmare.

The tech I spoke to yesterday said nothing had been turned in YET on the bad wire!

I have been dealing with this issue since before Labor Day! It is now Valentine's Day! I have heard every excuse imaginable until the last two techs who both told me that they were getting readings of a "bad wire" that runs under the road! Enough!

I would appreciate having assistance with higher ups in getting this wire replaced as soon as possible. And I think everyone in this neighborhood who has been dealing with this for at least as long as we have should have our bills adjusted. Comcast was not delivering the services we were paying for - specifically tv - I do not feel I am being unreasonable - and I do not appreciate their head of Customer Service LAUGHING at me when I ask for something that is more than reasonable. He is a real ass!

Please assist - I have been able to get no where

Thank You

I am reaching out to alert you to a concerning matter during the recent Super bowl broadcast by CBS, in partnership with the NFL, which has implications for transparency and regulatory adherence in media practices. An advertisement aired on the Paramount streaming telecast of the Super Bowl, sponsored by a foreign nation, Israel. The ad was made without the proper disclaimers mandated by Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations. This not only undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards but also misleads the public by not providing necessary context about the ad's origins.

The FCC's rules are clear: Broadcasts, especially those with content sponsored by foreign governments, must include clear disclaimers so viewers are aware of the source. Not disclosing that Israel is behind the broadcast is not just a violation of regulatory standards by CBS and the NFL, it is also a breach of public trust.

I am asking that you take immediate action to ensure that CBS and the NFL are held accountable.

The FCC should levy a fine against the broadcaster, CBS, and Usher should be blacklisted from radio and TV for this abhorrent stunt. Usher should probably have his career ended, be publicly shamed, and never fully recover from this moment. On February 11, 2024, CBS aired a commercial during the Superbowl that was paid for by israel, with a statement that said "free the hostages". This ad violated FCC rules, as it did not make the necessary disclosures to viewers across various platforms, and was misleading at best.

During the airing of the Superbowl, israel bombed yet another refugee site and murdered 100+ more Palestinian people in Rafah. Over 30,000 Palestinian men, women and children have been murdered by israel since October 7th. Airing this ad, with the statement "free the hostages", without disclosing the context that israel has time and again 1) bombed and killed their own hostages in an effort to kill as many Palestinian people as possible, 2) refused to accept hostages back on multiple occasions, and 3) that israel was, around the time of broadcast, bombing even more Palestinian people that were told they were in a safe zone, is an example of pro-genocidal propaganda.

This ad should not have been allowed to air without any of this important information attached to it. Not disclosing these facts to the viewers violates FCC rules and undermines the integrity of broadcasting.

Technical support over the phone could not help so they said that it would be $99 for a technician to come out, I have heard this before and didn't argue since they said that I could pay $8.99 per month for full protection when this isn't even more fault that their equipment could not withstand the wind. The tech didn't properly install it to begin with. I hastily agreed to pay because I wanted this fixed before the Super Bowl. They made the appointment for Sunday morning at 8am-12pm 2.11.24. Perfect I said, before the Super Bowl. They then called on Saturday and rescheduled the appointment with my wife that had no idea what was going on. I called back and said if your cannot honor the original appointment for Sunday morning, cancel my service. How clear was I? Apparently, not clear enough, since a technician showed up today and I asked if he was here to pick up the equipment and he said he was here to repair the dish. I said I canceled Saturday. In it they spoke about bring hostages home, when in fact Israel was offered the hostages back in a deal as recently as 2 days ago. Israel rejected the deal because they do not in fact want the hostages back. They want to justify their genocide and theft of Palestinian land.

Ticket: # 6775412 - Obscene language "poontang" - CBS Mornings broadcast, Nate Burleson Nickelodeon Super Bowl recap

Date: 2/12/2024 1:40 PM

City/State/Zip: Eugene, Oregon 97405

Description

CBS Mornings host Nate Burleson was on a remote tie-in from Las Vegas to highlight his Nickelodeon Super Bowl Broadcast. He recounted the experience of his appearance saying many celebrities attended the Super Bowl. Soon after, the spot cut to a shot of Taylor Swift in a skybox as Mr. Burleson referred to Ms. Swift in the audio as "...Travis Kelce's poontang." Poontang is an obscene slur used toward women meaning "prostitute" or "whore", "slut", "a woman or women regarded solely in terms of potential sexual gratification."

The public use of "poontang" is obscene because it clearly fails the Supreme Court's three prong test. First, it appeals to an average person's prurient interest defined as "a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex, or excretion." Taylor Swift has many young fans and people naturally interested in her sexual activity. Second, the use of "poontang" toward Ms. Swift portrays sexual conduct in a "patently offensive" way basically stating with one word that Ms. Swift is Mr. Kelce's "whore" not partner, girlfriend or love interest, but paid slut. Finally, the use of "poontang" taken as a whole within the context of this broadcast has zero "...serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value." This obscene word was chosen out of hate, bias and ignorance in opposition to the required decorum of broadcast television. Obscene language is actionable under 47 U.S.C. Section 559, "[w]hoever transmits over any...system any matter which is obscene or otherwise unprotected by the Constitution of the United States shall be fined under Title 18 or imprisoned not more than 2 years, or both."

This obscene language was used on network television during family hours 6am-10pm. The Nate Burleson spot opened in CBS' 8:00 am hour PST and the slur took place about 2-3 minutes into the story. Mr. Burleson's co-hosts did not correct him and the spot continued past the obscene slur directed at Ms. Swift. It is even more objectionable that Mr. Burleson's vulgar language was featured in a spot highlighting footage from a children's Nickelodeon broadcast meant to appeal to viewers under the age of 18. Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules, applicable to broadcast stations, bans the broadcast of obscene material and prohibits radio and television broadcasts of indecent material between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.

I ask that this spot be reviewed for obscenity, specifically Mr. Burleson's use of the word "poontang" to directly reference Ms. Swift. I also request that the FCC investigate whether this section of the broadcast containing the obscenity was live or recorded when airing in my PST zone. Replaying a vulgar slur more than once shows intent or certainly callous disregard for the viewing public and the law. Once the FCC concludes it's investigation, both Mr. Burleson as national broadcaster and his network CBS need to be held fully accountable. There is a required standard for broadcasts and using obscene language is well past that standard. I appreciate your help in reviewing and addressing this incident.

Enclosed in attachments are two definitions of "poontang", one from Oxford Dictionary, one from Dictionary.com, the origin of "poontang" from Etymonline, the FCC definition of obscene language and the FCC USC statutes applying to obscenity.

Description

During the recent broadcast of the Super Bowl, CBS aired an ad that was paid for by the State of Israel. This advertisement was aired without the proper disclaimers mandated by Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations. This not only undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards but also misleads the public by not providing necessary context about the ad's origins. I don't think we should be broadcasting ads by a country that has been investigated by the International Court of Justice for GENOCIDE and that has been found likely of inciting and doing GENOCIDE. this is disgusting that we aired a pro-genocide ad during the superbowl.

Description

Dear sir/madam,

I am writing to complain about how appalling it is the NFL allowed Israel to run a commercial during the superbowl. How can a state that is currently under investigation with the ICJ for committing genocide and war crimes be allowed to run a commercial at all let alone during the superbowl?

Im not sure if you are aware but at the exact same time the israeli commercial was being shown Israel was actually committing genocide on over 1.4 million innocent, unarmed Palestian civilians in Rafah, in the Gaza Strip, Palestine. Most of the victime were defenseless women and children. Israel has also bombed ALL hospitals in Gaza (another war crime) and so these poor defenseless women and chilren couldnt even get healthcare for their horrific injuries.

This is beyond appalling such a commercial was even allowed to be shown in the first place should never even be allowed. How dare the NFL show such propaganda and support for genocide!

I am asking you to please heavily investigate this, heavily fine the NFL and get them to announce a world wide appology for allowing such false propaganda from a state that is not only being investigated for war crimes and genocide at the ICJ but was also committing genocide at the exact same time the commercial was aired.

Thank you for your assistance and investigation.

Regards

I have sent multiple emails over the years, with no response. I have sent messages on social media as well. It does not broadcast more often than it does.

It's like they turn it off right before a sporting event, like the Superbowl yesterday. It would be great if they could at least respond to my emails or messages and let me know what the issue is and if they're working on it. Other stations do, if and when they have issues.

I hope something can be done.

Ticket: # 6778646 - CBS did not Disclose Israeli Propaganda on Super Bowl Sunday

Date: 2/12/2024 6:05 PM

City/State/Zip: Queens, New York 11362

Description

During the Super Bowl, which aired on CBS, a foreign entity (Israel) funded an advertisement directed toward American consumers attempting to justify its ongoing massacre of 30,000+ Palestinian Civilians (70% of whom are women and children) and forced displacement of Gaza, where it has made nearly the entire population refugees, as an attempt to "free the hostages," in the ad's own words. While this ad played, Israel attacked Rafah, where it has forcibly displaced 1.4 million Palestinians to and had previously declared a "safe place" for civilians but now intends to bomb relentlessly, without providing any plan as to how it will keep civilians safe. This could result in the death of most of the Palestinian population in Gaza. CBS failed to disclose these facts; thus I am concerned with the level of influence Israel is having on not only our media industry, but our government in general. It is up to Americans to make decisions about their views on the state of the world on their own, not from propaganda from a foreign entity. I know and you (whoever is reading this) know that if any other government tried to fund an ad promoting its affairs in the same manner Israel did, there would be immediate public outcry over propaganda from a foreign country being shown to American people on an American television channel covering an American event. As a proud American citizen, I am concerned about this level of foreign influence on our country's people and in our country's affairs; we are not to be bought out by another country aiming to advance its propaganda interests. Not now, not ever, and not with any other country.

Description

The Israel commercial that aired during the 2024 Super Bowl was in very poor taste and propaganda for a foreign state. The commercial talked about “bringing dads home” but neglected to mention how Israel is proven to be responsible for several hostage deaths due to their indiscriminate bombing and gunfire. Over 23,000 people in Gaza have been murdered by Israel, and over 1.5 million people were being carpet bombed in Rafah during the time in which the commercial aired. It’s indecent and horrifying.

Ticket: # 6778656 - Foreign Government Propaganda Advertisement

Date: 2/12/2024 6:06 PM

City/State/Zip: Houston, Texas 77072

Description

During the Super Bowl last night, Robert Kraft, owner of the New England Patriots, leveraged the event's massive viewership and $7 million to air an ad about Anti-semitism that used coded language and co-opted movements spearheaded by other marginalized groups in the U.S. to promote a foreign government. Furthermore another ad spot aired where Americans are exposed to a campaign launched by Israel's national information system about the current situation in Gaza, the West Bank, and Palestinian Territories. These ads have no place on American streaming/broadcast services when there's an active genocide being committed by Israel as confirmed by the UNRWA and the ICJ. The commercial shows an NFL athlete playing with his son, then cutting to clips of Israeli hostages being held in Gaza playing with their kids before 7 October when around 250 Israelis were taken captive.

The commercial was dedicated to Israeli dads being held in Gaza, ending with the hashtag "Bring all dads back home".

It was part of an Israeli government campaign, overseen by the National Public Diplomacy Directorate, producing and promoting media for Israel's narrative on the Gaza war, which has killed over 28,000 Palestinians.

Activist group Jewish Voice for Peace called out the ad, saying: "The Israeli military is bombing Rafah, the most densely populated area in the world, while Americans watch the Super Bowl. This is intentional. This is genocide."

"We're demanding the world watching the superbowl turn their eyes to Rafah."

Why is it that American taxpayers that already pay for broadcast services, streaming, and foot the bill in the SuperBowl host city are being misled by foreign governments while watching an American broadcast to advance foreign political influence?

It is known that the ads are just as important as the actual game, as taken from this article by sportskeeda: "The Super Bowl is more and more important because it's a shared experience," Calkins said. "And what's interesting is a lot of people watching the Super Bowl don't even really care about the game. They're watching the ads."

I refuse to engage with any broadcasts while confronted with ads airing in bad faith to advance falsehoods of a government that has been found culpable in genocide.

Last time I checked, Networks are responsible for disclosing to the American public when foreign governments are financially involved and influencing our media. The FCC MUST hold networks accountable for the media that they choose to distribute and the way that they are doing it. It is immoral that a foreign government is intervening in our media, any other foreign government would be held accountable and well as the Network distributing this propaganda.

On February 12, CBS violated FCC rules by not making proper disclosures to viewers of the Superbowl show regarding an advertisement paid for by the Israeli government that lacked context of an ongoing genocide they are committing against the Palestinian people. This undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards to allow a foreign government to influence our media with their propaganda, and misleads the public by not providing the context about the ad's origins. CBS and the NFL must be held accountable for this violation of FCC rules and the damage to broadcasting integrity by allowing a foreign government to use what is perhaps the United States of America's most viewed annual broadcast to spread their propaganda. Why was an advertisement from a foreign country about an ongoing war allowed on national television during the Super Bowl? My confusion is what Isreal was advertising for, and that no context was given for the full advertisement. "Bring Dads Home" -- what are we, as viewers, supposed to do? Most advertisements are a call to action to buy, or appeal to a brand. Are we allowing USA broadcasters to run foreign government's propoganda? If it was a tourism commercial, sure. If it was a cultural exhibition, sure. But a commercial paid for by the Isreali government that was just charged with genocide for an ongoing conflict? Indecent.

Two thoughts.

First, the subject line. The Israel-centric (and Israel funded?) ads were in very poor taste. They're actively attempting to annihilate an entire group of people (Palestine). Really did not like being propagated to during a sports event.

Second, and it has to do with this same issue... the lack of emergency alert system when Israel bombed the refugee camp in Rafah during the Super Bowl (literally at 4am their time) really disturbed me. This is an international crisis and we're complicit in the genocide taking place.

Date: 2/13/2024 12:31 AM

City/State/Zip: Redding, California 96003

Description

I am reaching out to alert you to a concerning matter during the recent Super bowl broadcast by CBS, in partnership with the NFL, which has implications for transparency and regulatory adherence in media practices. An advertisement aired on the Paramount streaming telecast of the Super Bowl, sponsored by a foreign nation, Israel. The ad was made without the proper disclaimers mandated by Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations. This not only undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards but also misleads the public by not providing necessary context about the ad's origins.

The FCC's rules are clear: Broadcasts, especially those with content sponsored by foreign governments, must include clear disclaimers so viewers are aware of the source. Not disclosing that Israel is behind the broadcast is not just a violation of regulatory standards by CBS and the NFL, it is also a breach of public trust.

I am asking that you take immediate action to ensure that CBS and the NFL are held accountable.

Hello,

I am writing as an extremely disturbed citizen. On the CBS network at around 3:30 p.m. (during the super bowl), there was an ad that CBS VIOLATED FCC rules by not properly disclosing to viewers on all platforms that ads aired during the Super Bowl were paid for by foreign governments like the Israeli government. Viewers have the right to know when foreign governments, including Israel, are financially involved in and influencing our media. The FCC must hold CBS and the NFL accountable.

I am appalled that CBS broadcast propoganda funded directly by a foreign power, during the most viewed televised event of the year in the U.S. The Super Bowl was viewed by over 100 million people, where a 30 second ad was aired giving a shortened and biased view on Israel's genocide of the Palestinian people, encouraging viewers to blindly support a war that the U.S. is participating in, which has resulted in the deaths of thousands upon thousands of innocent people. As a consumer and U.S. citizen, I demand that CBS be held accountable for profiting off of foreign propoganda that was not properly disclosed per FCC guidelines.

Hello,

This Sunday I was very excited to watch the superbowl with my family and friends. Ads are one of the best things during the game. It's appalling and crazy that another country can put an ad in our country. Super disappointed that y'all are money hungry and lack morals. As someone who doesn't support the genocide going on companies like y'all enable their massacre. Do better.

It was inappropriate and did not include context of where it came from. It also did not include context of what is happening between israel and gaza. Palestinians are facing genocide from israel and the NFL allowed an ad asking for people to support israel. So far our tax dollars have been sent to cause more harm towards Palestinians and this ad made me uncomfortable.

City/State/Zip: Asheville, North Carolina 28804

Description

I am reaching out to alert you to a concerning matter during the recent Super bowl broadcast by CBS, in partnership with the NFL, which has implications for transparency and regulatory adherence in media practices. An advertisement aired on the Paramount streaming telecast of the Super Bowl, sponsored by a foreign nation, Israel. The ad was made without the proper disclaimers mandated by Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations. This not only undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards but also misleads the public by not providing necessary context about the ad's origins.

The FCC's rules are clear: Broadcasts, especially those with content sponsored by foreign governments, must include clear disclaimers so viewers are aware of the source. Not disclosing that Israel is behind the broadcast is not just a violation of regulatory standards by CBS and the NFL, it is also a breach of public trust.

I am asking that you take immediate action to ensure that CBS and the NFL are held accountable.

As the American public we deserve to know when foreign governments are showing advertisements on their own behalf. CBS should have disclosed that the Israeli government was playing such an ad, particularly during such a high viewership time - the Super Bowl. We must ensure that our media is transparent and networks abide by FCC regulations. The timing I gave below is approximate - I do not recall the exact timing.

Description

I am submitting a complaint about the Super Bowl ad sponsored by Israel. It is incredibly inappropriate and distasteful to run an ad paid for by a country, especially one that is currently in the middle of a major violent conflict. It is the definition of propaganda and never should have been approved. We now know that this year's Super Bowl was the most viewed televised event since the moon landing. I can't even imagine the number of Palestinian Americans who were subjected to that commercial and how they must have felt. It's unacceptable to give such a large platform to a nation currently committing genocide.

I am reaching out to alert you to a concerning matter during the recent Super bowl broadcast by CBS, in partnership with the NFL, which has implications for transparency and regulatory adherence in media practices. An advertisement aired on the Paramount streaming telecast of the Super Bowl, sponsored by a foreign nation, Israel. The ad was made without the proper disclaimers mandated by Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations. This not only undermines the integrity of broadcasting standards but also misleads the public by not providing necessary context about the ad's origins.

The FCC's rules are clear: Broadcasts, especially those with content sponsored by foreign governments, must include clear disclaimers so viewers are aware of the source. Not disclosing that Israel is behind the broadcast is not just a violation of regulatory standards by CBS and the NFL, it is also a breach of public trust.

I am asking that you take immediate action to ensure that CBS and the NFL are held accountable.

The ad "bring all fathers home" was very misleading as most viewers were unaware that the ad was indeed bought and paid for by Israel, a foreign Government, in order to sway American opinion. They disguise the ad as if it were American, American football With what appeared to be African-American family, as Israel is predominantly, white and racist we would assume it is America this commercial is representing. There's a lot to dissect of why this is stupid, but we'll just start that there should've been acknowledgment that this was another country using American entertainment to push their countries agenda on Americans.

Description

On February 11th, 2024, CBS violated FCC guidelines by not properly disclosing to viewers on all platforms that ads aired during the Super Bowl were paid for by the Israeli government. Viewers have the RIGHT to know when foreign governments, especially those that are actively committing genocide, are financially involved and influencing our media. The FCC must hold CBS and the NFL accountable. If they don't, it is a clear and disgusting violation of consumer rights that once again illustrates that the US government's commitment is not to it's people, but the people who are rich and in power.

I am appalled by the commercial funded by a foreign government that is terrorizing innocent children and women for land and power. The FCC needs to hold CBS and the Super Bowl accountable so this NEVER happens again. The US is already funding this genocide let us not also sway public opinion by using this medium to gaslight people into feeling sorry for Zionists that just want to conquer and obtain power by any means necessary. THIS IS A CLEAR VIOLATION OF TRANSPARENCY RULES!

Date: 2/14/2024 9:38 PM

City/State/Zip: Birmingham, Alabama 35210

Description

I am deeply offended that such an obscene, false, misleading ad was allowed to air by a foreign government during the most watched sporting event in our country and the world. The NFL and CBS must be held accountable for the violence that the State of Israel uses this ad to promote against Palestinians as the SuperBowl aired and into the present in the occupied Palestinian territories. This is not a legal ad for many reasons — the most glaring violation of the law being extortion of sympathy on false pretenses with the sole intent of promoting violence and war crimes. The ad is a call for genocide of the Palestinian people and should not be allowed to have been aired on national television by the FCC. I am filing this complaint because I believe this ad violates numerous laws against FCC guidelines for advertising.

This is unacceptable to allow a foreign government to broadcast something like this on publicly available television during one of the most watched shows of the year. Hello,

I think it's disgusting that you allowed a misleading advertisement paid for by a foreign government to run during the Super Bowl. In the name of "Stop Jewish Hate," the advertisement tried to garner American support for the genocide happening in Palestine.

This is not what Judaism represents, and stopping Jewish hate cannot be done by using American tax dollars to kill nearly 30k people and displace 1.9 million more. The misleading advertisement extorted the lives of 130 hostages to justify the bombing of 2 million civilians.

In fact, during the superbowl, when American eyes were looking at football and not politics, Israel attacked Rafah, the last safe zone in Gaza. And yet you allow this propoganda on our TVs.

I know you will likely respond to this with some bullshit policy response, if you respond at all. But to the human on the other side reading this, just know that if you don't do something about this ad, you are complicit in mass murder and your grandchildren will never forgive you.

Do better America.

Ticket: # 6796301 - Formal Complaint Against Super Bowl Ad Broadcasted by the State of Israel

Date: 2/15/2024 12:21 PM

City/State/Zip: Newark, New Jersey 07112

Description

Dear FCC Consumer Inquiries and Complaints Division,

I am writing to file a formal complaint regarding an advertisement that was broadcast during the Super Bowl on February 11th. The content of the advertisement was highly inappropriate and offensive, as it was part of a propaganda campaign initiated by the apartheid state of Israel on foreign soil. I believe that this advertisement violated FCC regulations and warrants a thorough investigation.

Conducting an ad campaign against a resistance group in a country that they do not belong to while at the same time conducting an air strike, ground invasion and the use of US fighter jets to massacre the innocent civilians of the Gaza Strip and Palestinians at large is not only unethical and morally bankrupt but an invasion of foreign interests on US soil.

I understand that the FCC has guidelines to ensure that broadcast content adheres to certain standards and does not promote hate speech or propaganda. Given the sensitive nature of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the potential impact of such propaganda, I am deeply concerned about the appropriateness of this advertisement on a platform as widely viewed as the Super Bowl.

I kindly request that the FCC conducts a comprehensive investigation into this matter to determine whether the broadcasting of this advertisement violated any regulations or guidelines. It is essential to uphold the principles of fair and unbiased broadcasting to ensure that the public is not subjected to content that may contribute to misinformation or propaganda.

I appreciate your attention to this matter and trust that the FCC will handle this complaint with the seriousness it deserves. If you require any additional information or documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you

Description

The government of Israel purchased and ran a political advertisement during the Super Bowl on Sunday. The fact that foreign governments are allowed to purchase ads on American airspace, especially about a political issue DURING AN ELECTION YEAR is alarming. Have we learned NOTHING from Russian bots influencing the 2016 elections? The fact that it was not properly disclosed that the ad was funded by a foreign government while it was on air is even more alarming. CBS violated FCC rules by not properly disclosing to viewers on all platforms that the ad aired during the Super Bowl was paid for by the Israeli government. Regardless of the topic, regardless of what country's government it is, I as an American citizen and a voter have the right to know when a foreign agent is financially involved in influencing the media I consume. CBS and the NFL must be held accountable. We'd never stand for this if it were Russia or China, but honestly, I don't even care if Canada wants to run an ad about maple syrup on American airwaves. I think it's indecent and shouldn't be allowed, but if we're going to let foreigners invade our airwaves, at the very least make sure it's disclosed.

Description

On Super Bowl Sunday, CBS aired a commercial paid for by the Israeli government to millions of Americans. CBS did not, at any point, disclose that a foreign government paid for the ad. It's outrageous that CBS allowed this kind of foreign government influence to millions of unsuspecting viewers, and they must be held accountable for this.

Despite multiple complains and even a few house calls to check our equipment, service continues to go downhill. Despite several promises of possible refunds, we have yet to receive any compensation.

The State of Israel, posted an ad during the super bowl this year to get support for their genocide in Gaza. As a veteran of the US Army I find it anti-American to allow foreign actors to advertise pro genocide on an event like the Super Bowl, or any other time.

Company Complaining About: Comcast

Description

Consumer has a serious issue with Comcast.

Their customer service is outside the US, and it is very frustrating.

When they started to watch the Super Bowl at 5:30.

They could understand the program for a few minutes and then it switched to Spanish, which she does not understand.

It was apparently just her television that had the problem with broadcasting in Spanish.

Consumer is very upset about this - she tried to contact them and got no assistance from anyone.

She wants them to reduce her bill by 50% because of this.
