

Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

Amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company Regarding the Emergency Connectivity Fund, signed March 18, 2021

By mutual agreement, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) revise the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), dated March 18, 2021, to strike the existing first sentence of section II, entitled “APPLICABLE PROVISIONS,” and to replace it with the following sentence: “The Commission and USAC currently have a MOU, dated December 19, 2018, as amended on November 19, 2021 (amending the “Assistance with Potential Rule Violations and Other Investigations” section), December 19, 2023 (revising the first sentence of the “Revision and Duration” section), and June 12, 2024 (revising the first sentence of the “Revision and Duration” section) which governs the relationship between the Commission and USAC as it pertains to USAC’s work as the Commission’s designated administrator of the Universal Service Fund (USF).¹”

SIGNATURES

Date: _____

Date: June 12, 2024

Mark Stephens
Managing Director
Federal Communications Commission

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Radha Sekar".

Radha Sekar
Chief Executive Officer
Universal Service Administrative Company

¹ Memorandum of Understanding between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company, Dec. 19, 2018, available at: <https://www.fcc.gov/sites/default/files/usac-mou.pdf>; Amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company, signed December 19, 2018 (Nov. 19, 2021), available at: <https://www.fcc.gov/sites/default/files/usac-mou-amendment-11192021.pdf>; Amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company, signed December 19, 2018 (Dec. 19, 2023); Amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company, signed June 12, 2024 (June 12, 2024).