Amendment to the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Federal Communications Commission and the Universal Service Administrative Company, signed December 19, 2018

By mutual agreement, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) revise the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), dated December 19, 2018, to strike the existing first sentence of section VI, entitled "REVISION AND DURATION," and to replace it with the following sentence: "This MOU became effective on December 19, 2018. It was amended effective November 22, 2021 and subsequently amended effective December 19, 2023. The MOU as amended will remain in effect until September 17, 2024 unless revised or terminated by mutual agreement in writing between the Commission and USAC."
