

Polly Prince Johnson - President and CEO Louisiana Association of Broadcasters

Polly joined the Louisiana Association of Broadcasters in January 2010, when her predecessor retired in February of 2013 and she was promoted to President/CEO.

Ms. Johnson is the past President for the National Alliance of State Broadcasters Associations. She is also past President of the Louisiana Society of Association Executives. She also serves on the Louisiana Commission on Civic Education. Polly is also on the Louisiana Legislators task force for Public Records Law.

Polly and her husband David live in Baton Rouge and they have two sons that also reside in Baton Rouge.