Subject: FCC's Office of Native Affairs and Policy is Hiring an Attorney Advisor

Greetings from the Federal Communications Commission.

The Office of Native Affairs and Policy (ONAP) in the FCC's Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau is looking to hire an attorney to join our team. ONAP is seeking a Senior Attorney with experience in Tribal affairs. ONAP was established by the FCC in 2010, with a mission to bring the benefits of modern communications to all Native communities. In addition to assisting the FCC in developing policies and programs to provide communications services on Tribal lands, ONAP plans and leads the FCC's outreach to Tribal governments and organizations, and oversees the work of the Native Nations Communications Task Force. Applications should be submitted by November 9, 2023 through USAJOBS (www.usajobs.gov).

The Attorney Advisor announcement detailing duties and requirements is available at <https://www.usajobs.gov/job/757068600>

Information about ONAP's mission and initiatives is available at <https://www.fcc.gov/office-native-affairs-and-policy>
